Minister of Health and Human Services

Republic of the Marshall Islands Ministry of Health and Human Services

Hon. Bremity Lakjohn is a healthcare professional and public leader from the Marshall Islands with nearly three decades of experience in nursing and community health.

He holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Guam, an Associate of Science in Nursing from the College of the Marshall Islands, a Health and Welfare Certification from Niigata University, and Nurse Practitioner training from Fiji National University.

He began his career as a Clinic and Public Health Nurse in Ebeye and later served as Public Health Chief Nurse in Majuro, leading programs focused on disease prevention and community wellness.

In 2024, he was elected as the representative of Ujae Atoll to the Nitijela (Parliament) and appointed Minister in Assistance to the President and Environment.

Outside of his public service, he enjoys fishing and reading, staying connected to his island roots.
